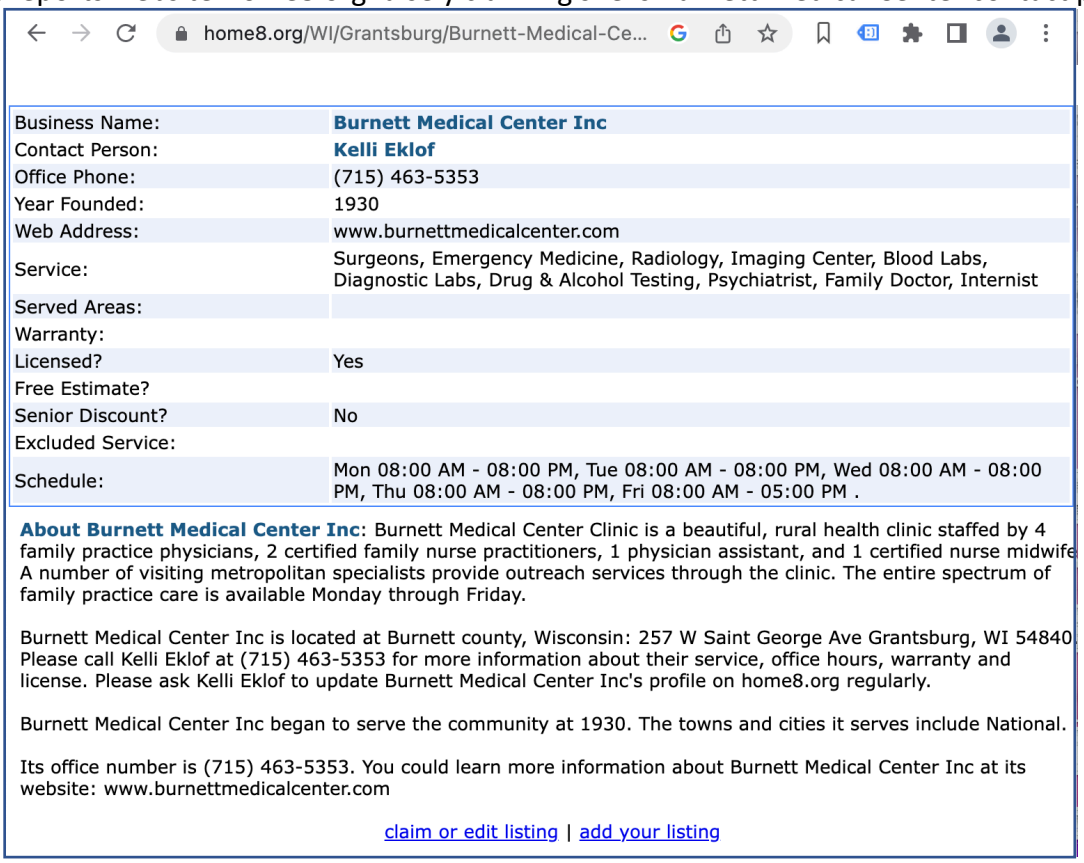
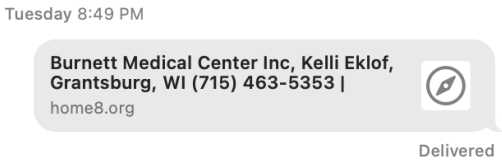
FTC Complaint: Kelli Eklof RN website fraud as part of SKIN-CARTEL

Past complaints allege Ms. Kelli Eklof is a key player of SKIN-CARTEL illegal Rx and patient harm crimes. This complaint reports website Home8.org falsely claiming she is Burnett Medical Center contact person:



- A text link of Home8.org website lists Ms. Eklof as owner of Burnett Medical Center.



- HHS OIG affirmed 2014 that Ms. Eklof conspired with SKIN-CARTEL members (Dr. Steven Armus and Racine Re/Max® Ms. Kimberly Hood, formerly Armus) in RICO crimes. They imperiled patient care while SKIN-CARTEL stole physician Rx identities to procure illegal Rx drugs for distribution.
- FTC complaint # XXXXX01: Ms. Kimberly Hood sexually harassed skin cancer patients with a 1-800 phone sex # ("press 1 to have sex with..."). The # is now used for medical device wire fraud.
- IRS complaint against St. Croix Health™, formerly Saint Croix Regional Medical Center, reported their falsified IRS Form 990 affirming whistleblower and conflict of interest policies are in place.
- Ms. Eklof's role was sabotaging St. Croix Health™ (formerly Saint Croix Regional Medical Center) clinics of victim physician Nanette Liégeois M.D., Ph.D. After clinical sabotage, she and others falsified "evidence" to paint Dr. Liégeois' concern for RICO crimes a paranoid delusion.
- Two (2) patients with advanced skin cancer died from these RICO crimes and clinic sabotage. A patient died November 2022, another victim of this sustained medical malfeasance campaign.
